REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION OF UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

To: The Honorable Lee Yeakel, United States District Judge

The Magistrate Judge submits this Report and Recommendation to the District Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §636(b) and Rule 1(e) of Appendix C of the Local Court Rules of the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, Local Rules for the Assignment of Duties to United States Magistrates, as amended, effective December 1, 2002.

Before the Court are Petitioner's Application for Habeas Corpus Relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 (Document 1); Respondent's Motion to Dismiss as Time-Barred (Document 9); and Petitioner's Response thereto (Document 13). Petitioner, proceeding pro se, has been granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis. For the reasons set forth below, the undersigned finds that Petitioner's application for writ of habeas corpus should be dismissed.

I. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

A. Petitioner's Criminal History

According to Respondent, the Director has lawful and valid custody of Petitioner pursuant to a judgment and sentence of the 22nd Judicial District Court of Comal County, Texas, in cause number 8924, styled The State of Texas v. Louis Albert Smith. Petitioner was charged by indictment with the felony offense of robbery by assault with a deadly weapon which occurred on or about April 17, 1973, in Caldwell County. He was originally convicted in cause number 7892 with a sentence of 99 years. The Court of Criminal Appeals subsequently reversed this judgment of conviction and remanded for further proceedings. Smith v. State, 547 S.W.2d 6 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977). Petitioner was re-convicted upon the same indictment in Comal County, after a change of venue, and was given the same sentence but under the new cause number 8924.

Petitioner does not challenge his holding conviction. Rather he argues he is not being given credit for the time he spent in jail while his case was on appeal from his original conviction. Petitioner raised this issue in two state applications for habeas corpus relief. The Court of Criminal Appeals dismissed both as subsequent petitions pursuant to Article 11.97, Section 4 of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure. See Ex parte Smith, Appl. Nos. 27,590-04 and 27,590-05 at covers. Respondent moves to dismiss Petitioner's federal application, executed by Petitioner on August 30, 2006, as time-barred.

II. DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

A. The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996

On April 24, 1996, the President signed into law the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ["AEDPA"].<sup>1</sup> The AEDPA amended 28 U.S.C. § 2244 to provide a statute of limitations for applications for habeas corpus relief filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254. That section provides, in relevant part:

(d)(1) A 1-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of--

(A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;

(B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such State action;

(C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or

(D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

(2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection.

B. Application

Petitioner does not deny he knew of the factual predicate of his claims long before the enactment of the AEDPA. The Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals has addressed the applicability of the limitations provision to habeas applications filed after the enactment of the AEDPA attacking convictions which became final prior thereto in United States v. Flores, 135 F.3d 1000 (5th Cir. 1998). The Flores court determined that prisoners must be accorded a reasonable time after the AEDPA's effective date within which to file petitions for collateral relief. Id. at 1005. The Court concluded that petitioners attacking convictions or sentences which became final prior to the AEDPA's effective date will be accorded the one-year post-AEDPA period, commencing on the Act's effective date, to file for relief. Id. at 1006. The Fifth Circuit joined the Seventh, Ninth, and Tenth Circuits in holding that one year, commencing on April 24, 1996, presumptively constitutes a reasonable time for those prisoners whose convictions had become final prior to the enactment of the AEDPA to file for relief. Id. While the Flores opinion concerned the limitations provision for filing motions pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255, the reasonable time for filing applications for habeas corpus relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254 should be the same. Therefore, Petitioner's application, to be timely, would have had to have been filed on or before April 24, 1997.

Petitioner did not execute his federal application until August 30, 2006, long after the expiration of the one-year grace period. Petitioner's state applications for habeas corpus relief did not operate to toll the limitations period because they too were filed after the expiration of the one-year grace period.

Petitioner argues the State waived the time limitations because the state courts did not address his claims in his state applications for habeas corpus relief and the prison did not address his claims in his time credit dispute. In addition, he argues the AEDPA does not apply, because he is not challenging his conviction and he is not seeking his release.

Contrary to Petitioner's arguments, the AEDPA applies to his habeas corpus application. The record does not reflect that any unconstitutional state action impeded Petitioner from filing for federal habeas corpus relief prior to the end of the one-year grace period. Furthermore, Petitioner has not shown that he did not know the factual predicate of his claims earlier. Finally, the claims do not concern a constitutional right recognized by the Supreme Court within the last year and made retroactive to cases on collateral review.

III. RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that Respondent's Motion to Dismiss be granted and Petitioner's application for writ of habeas corpus be dismissed as time-barred.

IV. OBJECTIONS

The parties may file objections to this Report and Recommendation. A party filing objections must specifically identify those findings or recommendations to which objections are being made. The District Court need not consider frivolous, conclusive, or general objections. Battles v. United States Parole Comm'n, 834 F.2d 419, 421 (5th Cir. 1987).

A party's failure to file written objections to the proposed findings and recommendations contained in this Report within ten (10) days after the party is served with a copy of the Report shall bar that party from de novo review by the district court of the proposed findings and recommendations in the Report and, except upon grounds of plain error, shall bar the party from appellate review of unobjected-to proposed factual findings and legal conclusions accepted by the district court. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C); Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 150-153, 106 S. Ct. 466, 472-74 (1985); Douglass v. United Servs. Auto. Assoc., 79 F.3d 1415 (5th Cir. 1996)(en banc).

To the extent that a party has not been served by the Clerk with this Report and Recommendation electronically, pursuant to the CM/ECF procedures of this District, the Clerk is ORDERED to mail such party a copy of this Report and Recommendation by certified mail, return receipt requested.

SIGNED this 16th day of November, 2006.
